

St Mary's College
Durham University

125 Objects

Drawstring washbag

"A capacious drawstring washing bag was essential for life in Mary's in my era. Our rooms lacked facilities for bathing. So, to wash we had to go along the corridor to the communal bathroom where, if I recall correctly, there were 3 washbasins, each behind a plastic curtain and 2 baths, each behind a wooden door"

Elizabeth Fisher nee Lacey
1965-1968

