

Disability Theology in a Missional Context (TMM47820)

---

Module Level:	7
Module Credit Value:	20
Pre-requisites:	None
Co-requisites:	None
Excluded Combination of Modules:	TMM3901 - Disability Theology
Aims:	To develop students' knowledge and critical understanding of disability theology as an area of theology that exists in critical relation to, but distinct from, liberation and systematic theologies. To enable students to evaluate and analyse critically arguments within the area of disability theology. To enable students to develop a sophisticated awareness of disability theology in terms of its connections to theological anthropology, ministry, mission and justice. To enable students to bring biblical and theological critical skills to the consideration of disability issues. To raise questions about hermeneutical approaches towards scripture that are illuminated by a disability perspective, for example to explore the asynchrony between modern cultural understandings of disability and those in ancient writing.
Content:	The history and development of disability theology as a distinct area of theology and its origins in the Christian tradition. Current models of disability theology and a critical appraisal of their relative strengths and assumptions. Disability in the scriptures and the use of a disability hermeneutical lens. Disability and human personhood – imago dei, relationship, friendship, memory. Vulnerability and suffering as typical of the human condition, and the importance of lament. Exploration of the complex questions of prayer and healing in the context of ministry with those with disabilities. Missional aspects of disability framed in terms of justice, hospitality, inclusion.

Learning Outcomes: By the end of this module students will be able to:

Subject Specific Knowledge [SSK 1, 2, 3]

Demonstrate a depth of understanding and knowledge of disability theology as a distinct area of theology. [SSK1]

Understand, assimilate, and evaluate critically some different theological methods and models in disability theology. [SSK2]

Research and give a coherent account of some key doctrinal questions and the controversies around them in disability theology (eg healing, embodiment, imago dei), and relating this to today's church and social context. [SSK2]

Demonstrate a critical grasp of hermeneutical issues in disability theology. [SSK3]

Subject Specific Skills [SSS 1, 2, 3]

Apply their knowledge to undertake an independent investigation of Christian church, ministry and mission in the light of disability issues, and to report these findings within academic conventions. [SSS1]

Evaluate and apply disability models, develop critiques of them and, where appropriate, propose new hypotheses. [SSS2]

Reflect theologically in a sophisticated and rigorous manner, exercising sound judgement when engaging systematically and creatively with disability. [SSS3]

Key Skills [KS 1, 3]

Undertake systematic and creative research into a disability issue within church, ministry or mission, and communicate their findings with clarity, sensitivity, fairness and imagination. [KS1]

Exercise these learning skills to develop a resource of use to churches or ministers. [KS3]

Modes of Teaching and Learning: Teaching methods to be specified by each TEI, using the 'Guidelines for Modes of Teaching and Learning'

Contact Hours: Contact hours to be specified by each TEI using the 'Guidelines for Contact Hours'

Formative Assessment: Formative assessment to be specified by each TEI in line with the published guidelines on formative assessment

Summative Assessment: Summative assessment to be specified by each TEI using the published guidance on assessment patterns for undergraduate programmes

Indicative Reading:

Indicative reading to be specified by each TEI in line with the published guidelines on creating bibliographies for undergraduate modules