HOUSING OPTIONS

On-campus and Off-campus

On-campus Housing

- ❖ Cost: ~$9,500 USD (Shared Room & Food)
 - Includes housing accommodation and semester meal plan
 - Shared room with 1 - 3 students
 - Communal bathrooms
 - Some dorms are traditional from the 1800's, others are newer
 - Single gender with parietal visitor restrictions
- ❖ On campus meal plan is required when living on campus
- ❖ More information can be found here

Pros:

Best option for social experience. Easiest to make friends, close to classes, and includes meal plan in dining halls

Cons:

Less privacy especially if you are used to living on your own, campus guidelines and rules enforced, most expensive housing option

Off-campus Housing

- ❖ Once admitted, international visiting students can find off-campus housing at offcampus.nd.edu
- ❖ Cost: ~$4,000 per semester
 - ~$850 per month (Single Room)
 - ~$150 Utilities & additional fees for utilities
 - You can live with friends or be matched with a random roommate
- ❖ Off-campus meal plan is optional when living off-campus
- ❖ Off-campus housing complexes usually require long-term leases, short-term leases (less than a year) maybe harder to find

Pros:

More budget friendly, you can choose your roommates, you can cook your own meals, more privacy

Cons:

Second best option for social life and campus experience

Off-campus Housing: Sacred Heart Parish Center

- ❖ The Parish Center is on ND campus, however not considered an on campus dorm and is a former seminary building
- ❖ Cost: ~$3,200 ($800 USD per month for a single room)
 - Includes housing and utilities
 - Students can choose to cook themselves in the parish kitchen or purchase on meal plan
 - Communal bathrooms, a kitchen, laundry area and a chapel
- ❖ Located within campus, only a 5 - 10 min walk around our Saint Joseph Lake

Pros:

Most budget friendly option,
can choose your roommates, can cook your own meals, on the edge of campus

Cons:

Not the same community/social life as on campus, a simple, rustic and minimal space
