EXCHANGE PROGRAM IN MÉXICO.

UNIVERSIDAD
Panamericana

International students can have numerous educational, professional, and cultural experiences available to them while studying abroad in Mexico.

A vibrant culture coupled with quality schools and a widely-spoken language is the best way for students to gain the skills and global awareness to thrive.

Not to mention, you could open yourself up to business and personal connections to last you a lifetime.

WHY MÉXICO?

Mexicans are very good in making visitors feel welcome. It's common to get invited to parties and dinners at people's homes.

There's also a greater emphasis on creating harmony and agreement within a group setting. If you're considering the pros and cons of studying abroad in Mexico, its vibrant community makes it a good place for international students to feel more at home.

WELCOMING COMMUNITY.

AFFORDABLE LIVING.

Universidad Panamericana

International students in Mexico will appreciate the country's affordable cost of living, cheaper than the global average — most students can afford rent, food and transportation at USD $750 per month. Additionally, students can take advantage of cheap transportation to explore their surroundings.

FOOD AND CULTURE.

From Mariachi bands that play at the Plaza Garibaldi in Mexico City to backyard gatherings, markets, museums and festivals, there is plenty for international students to experience throughout the nation's vibrant cities.

If you're lucky enough to study in Mexico during November, Día de Los Muertos — the Day of the Dead — is set aside to pay tribute to those who've passed. Meanwhile, Mexicans celebrate Carnival before Lent in February or March.

Food options will never run out!

International students can visit several landmarks in Mexico.

The country's history includes ancient Aztec civilizations and the Mayans, of which the remaining structures and ruins provide insight into pre-Hispanic life.

Students can also learn more about Mexico by visiting one of its many museums — there are over 150 museums in Mexico City alone.
